

U.S. Embassy

Beirut, Lebanon

Please follow the steps below before your immigrant visa appointment at the U.S. Embassy in Beirut, Lebanon.

Step 1: Create a profile by selecting an address registration for document delivery

Selecting an address registration for document delivery provides us with the information we need to properly return your passport to you after your visa interview appointment. Registration is free. Click the “Register” button below:

Important: If you have already been interviewed or scheduled for a visa appointment by the National Visa Center or by the Embassy, please DO NOT schedule a new visa appointment.

Items to bring to your medical examination

Bring the following items to your medical exam:

- Your NVC visa appointment letter,
- Your passport,
- Six (6) recently taken passport-sized colored photographs, and
- A copy of your immunization records.
- DS-260 confirmation page
- An email address
- A U.S. address
- The applicant's current address
- The applicant's local phone number

Any medical examination fees, including x-ray and blood test fees, must be paid directly to the examining physician.

Medical Exam Instructions

During the medical exam

The medical examination will include a medical history review, physical examination, and chest X-ray, gonorrhea test, and blood tests (for applicants 15 years of age or older). The United States also requires tuberculosis (TB) testing for all applicants two years of age and older. Please be prepared to discuss your medical history, medications you are taking, and current treatments you are undergoing. More information on general medical requirements for U.S. immigrants is available on the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's website.

U.S. immigration law requires immigrant visa applicants to obtain certain vaccinations prior to the issuance of a visa. Current immigrant visa vaccination requirements are available on CDC.Gov. You can also read Frequently Asked Questions about our medical examination requirements at Travel.State.Gov.

After the medical exam

When your examination is completed, the doctor will either provide you with exam results in a sealed envelope (for K1 applicants) or send them directly to the U.S. Embassy's system. IF GIVEN AN ENVELOPE, DO NOT OPEN. Instead, bring it to your visa appointment.

Any x-rays taken will be given to you. You DO NOT need to bring the x-rays to your visa appointment unless you suffer from tuberculosis (TB). However, you must carry the x-rays with you when you travel to the United States for the first time. The medical report must be less than six months old when you enter the United States as an immigrant.

In-Person Prescreening Checklist ☒

Please use the list below to determine the items that each applicant must bring to the immigrant visa appointment. Any documents that are not in English must be accompanied by a sworn English translation. You do not need to certify documents with the Lebanese Ministry of Foreign Affairs. If you do not bring all required documents to the scheduled appointment, visa processing will be delayed.

A copy of your NVC appointment letter (does not apply to Diversity Visa, fiancé(e), adoption, or asylee/refugee applicants).

Unexpired passport valid for six (6) months beyond your intended date of entry to the United States and a photocopy of the biographic page (where your name and photo are located).

Two (2) color photographs of each person applying for a visa (5 cm x 5 cm) in addition to the six photographs required for the medical exam. Please review our online photo requirements.

Confirmation page from the Form DS-260 Application for an Immigrant Visa you submitted online at ceac.state.gov/iv.

Your original birth certificate and an English translation.

Medical examination results in a sealed envelope (if the physician gave you these results).

Your original and updated family extract and an English translation.

Your original individual extract and an English translation.

If any visa ineligibility exists, you must submit court documents or other documentation pertaining to this ineligibility. (Ineligibilities include but are not limited to unlawful presence in the United States, deportation, drug use, crimes and convictions, misrepresentation, etc.).

Original or certified copies of birth certificates for the petitioner if not already submitted to the National Visa Center as well as the birth certificates for all children of the principal applicant, including the petitioner (even if he or she is not accompanying).

Applicants who fall into any category listed in italics below should bring these additional documents:

For family-based visa applications:

- The appropriate Form I-864 Affidavit of Support for each financial sponsor along with a photocopy of the sponsor's most recent IRS tax transcript, available at <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>. As an alternative, please note that you may use the combination of W-2s instead of a tax transcript, but you must make sure to include your W-2s if you choose this option. EXCEPTION: K visa applicants should bring a completed and signed Form I-134 instead of Form I-864, along with the sponsor's tax documents.
- Proof of your U.S. petitioner's status (photocopy of a U.S. passport, naturalization certificate, or lawful permanent resident card) and domicile in the United States. If the U.S. citizen petitioner lives abroad, provide proof of their intent to re-establish domicile in the United States at a date no later than the beneficiary's immigration.

For marriage-based or fiancé-based applications:

Evidence of the relationship between the petitioner and visa applicant (such as photographs, chat transcripts, or emails).

In-Person Prescreening Checklist ☒

If you are married: Your original marriage certificate and an English translation. Marriage certificates for all current and prior marriages for both the petitioner and the beneficiary must be provided. Documents must be issued by the government in the country where the marriage took place. Religious contracts are not accepted.

If you were previously married: Your original divorce or spouse's death certificate, and an English translation. Documents must be issued by the government in the country where the divorce took place. Religious contracts are not accepted.

If you are older than 16 years of age: The original police certificate from your country of current residence and countries of previous residence. If these three items are all true, you must bring a more recent police certificate to the interview:

1. You are older than 16 years;
2. You obtained a police certificate and submitted it to NVC more than 2 years ago; and
3. You still live in the country that issued the police certificate.
4. Applicants must also present a police certificate, if obtainable, from their country of nationality, if different from the country of current residence and if residence in the country of nationality exceeds six months.

For employment-based visa applications:

Letter from your U.S. employer dated less than one month ago and proof of experience if applicable.

If you have ever been convicted of a crime: Court and criminal records, and an English translation.

If you are adopted: Adoption papers or custody documents, English translation.

If you are the petitioner's stepchild: The original marriage certificate of the petitioner and your biological parent, English translation, and a photocopy along with divorce records for any previous marriages of either parent.

Do not make travel plans until after you receive a visa. Once you receive your visa and passport back, you should verify that all the information listed on your visa is correct.

In-Person Prescreening Guidelines

Sending documents to the U.S. Embassy in Beirut

If the U.S. Embassy requests additional information or documentation from you, the consular officer will provide instructions on how to submit those to the Embassy. Please do not mail anything to us without being asked to do so.

Rescheduling or cancelling your In-Person Prescreening Appointment:

If you are unable to attend your appointment, please email us at BeirutIV@state.gov for instructions on how to reschedule your appointment online. There may be a significant wait before the next available appointment, so please attempt to attend the date already assigned by NVC. DV applicants should be aware that visas are numerically limited and must be issued by September 30 of the program year. There is no guarantee that a visa will still be available on the date of your rescheduled interview. Please carefully consult the Visa Bulletin before you decide to reschedule your interview.

Security screening procedures

All visitors to the U.S. Embassy in Beirut must follow certain security procedures. Any visitor who declines to be screened by U.S. Embassy security personnel will be unable to enter the embassy. To avoid delaying your entry and that of those in line behind you, please bring only what is required for your interview. Please note that cell phones are not allowed inside the embassy, and storage is not available.

Accompanying persons

Attorneys and petitioners (aside from parents of minor children) are not permitted to accompany applicants into the waiting room or to their interview. Interpreters are also not allowed; we conduct interviews in English, Arabic, French, Armenian and sometimes in Spanish.

Only the following persons may accompany a visa applicant to their appointment:

- Special Needs Visitors: Applicants may bring ONE person to help if they are elderly, disabled, or a minor child.

Immigrant visa fees

If you have not paid all required fees to the National Visa Center, please be prepared to pay these fees on the day of your appointment. All fees must be paid in U.S. dollars. We accept cash, and U.S. Credit Cards only. Please note that if you are found ineligible to receive a visa, the application fee cannot be refunded. A complete list of fees can be found here.

Do not make travel plans outside of Lebanon

If your visa is approved, we will keep your passport at the Embassy while we prepare your immigration packet and print the visa on your passport. You will need to pick up your passport from the SLS delivery courier service office, after you receive an SMS from them.

After Your Visa Appointment

A consular officer can make a decision on a visa application, only after reviewing the formal application and interviewing the applicant. There is no guarantee that you will receive an immigrant visa. Therefore, do not sell your house, car or property, resign from your job or make non-refundable flight or other travel arrangements until you have received your immigrant visa.

If more information is needed

There are only two possible outcomes for U.S. visa applications. The consular officer will either issue or refuse the visa. If a visa applicant has not established that he or she is eligible for a visa, the consular officer must refuse that application. However, some refused visa applications may require further administrative processing. When administrative processing is required, the consular officer will inform the applicant at the end of the interview. The duration of the administrative processing will vary based on the individual circumstances of each case. At the conclusion of the administrative processing period, the consular officer might conclude that an applicant is now qualified for the visa for which he or she applied. The officer may also conclude that the applicant remains ineligible for a visa.

What happens after visa approval

Passport, Visa, and Sealed Immigrant Packet – We will place your immigrant visa on a page in your passport. Please review your visa to make sure there are no spelling errors. We also might give you a sealed envelope containing documents that you must give to U.S. immigration authorities when you arrive in the United States for the first time, if your visa is a paper case. Do not open this envelope. You must carry it with you. Do not put it in your checked luggage. If you receive X-rays during your medical examination, carry those with you and give them to the U.S. immigration authorities.

USCIS Immigrant Fee – All individuals who are issued immigrant visas overseas must pay an Immigrant Fee to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) prior to, or after traveling to the United States. This fee is for processing your residency status and printing your Permanent Resident Card. The only people exempt from paying this fee are children entering the United States under the Hague Process, returning residents, and people traveling on a fiancé(e) (K) visa.

When You Should Travel – You must enter the United States before the expiration date on your visa, which is no more than six months from the date of printing. Your visa cannot always be extended, and all fees are non-refundable. The principal applicant must enter before or at the same time as other family members with visas. Unless they are eligible for benefits under the Child Status Protection Act, children who are issued a visa before turning 21 years of age must enter the United States before their 21st birthday to avoid losing their immigrant status.

Getting a Green Card – Your Form I-551 Permanent Resident Card, also known as a green card, will be automatically mailed to the address in the United States that you write in your DS-260 visa application form. The Form I-551 is a very important document that proves you have permission to reside in the United States. If you plan to travel outside the U.S. before your green card arrives: Please consult USCIS's and CBP's websites for rules about what documents you need to re-enter the country. We also recommend you check with the airline to ensure you are in compliance with their rules. Once your card is issued, you should not stay outside of the United States for more than one year. If you do, you may lose your status as a Lawful Permanent Resident.

After Your Visa Appointment

Children's Issues – In the United States, children are required to have certain vaccinations before they can enroll in school. We recommend that you bring your child's complete vaccination records with you to the United States. If your child is adopted, you have full custody as a result of a divorce, or you share custody with another parent, you should bring a copy of all applicable adoption or custody papers from the authoritative court in your home country. You will need these papers (translated into English) for issues such as school enrollment, medical care, and eventual citizenship.

Information for New Immigrants – Please visit the USCIS web page for helpful information on moving to the United States. You can read their publication "Welcome to the United States: A Guide for New Immigrants" online.

Diversity Visa Applicants – Additional Information

If you are applying for a Diversity Visa (DV), all of the above instructions apply to you. Please schedule and attend a medical examination prior to your visa appointment and gather the required documents.

Below are additional instructions that apply only to DV applicants.

Bring to your interview

In addition to the documents listed on the In-Person Prescreening Checklist in this package, DV applicants should also bring the following items to your visa interview:

- Appointment information printed from the “Entrant Status Check” on the E-DV website.
- Documents showing that you have either a qualifying high school education OR two (2) years of qualifying work experience in the five (5) years immediately prior to application (for the principal applicant only; more information is available online).
- Payment in cash of the $330 Diversity Visa Application Fee for each visa applicant.
- Proof of financial stability (bank book, bank statement and/or proof of liquid assets), or Joint Sponsor’s signed Affidavit of Support (I-134), along with proof of his/her citizenship or Legal Permanent Resident status and a complete federal income tax transcripts from the IRS for the most recent year.

Review your DV Lottery entry

Prior to your visa appointment, we recommend that you review the data on your initial E-DV entry. On your initial E-DV application, you must have correctly entered your marital status. If you are legally married you must have listed your spouse, even if you are currently separated from him/her (unless your spouse is a U.S. citizen or Lawful Permanent Resident).

Additionally, you must have listed ALL of your living children who are unmarried and under 21 years old. This includes your natural children, your spouse’s children, or children you have formally adopted in accordance with the laws of your country.

Failure to have listed an existing spouse or children at the time of your entry in the Diversity Visa lottery will result in the denial of your visa and visas for your family. Any fees paid to the U.S. government in support of your visa application(s) are nonrefundable. If you failed to include a child who had already been born, or a spouse to whom you were married when you entered the lottery, you should not proceed with the visa application. You can review the eligibility requirements online.
